Crowded Schools Present Serious Problem

LONG APPROACHED BY HOME RULERS

Want Him To Make Run As County Attorney For Them

FUSION IS EXPECTED WITH THE DEMOCRATS

SEVERAL PROMINENT DEM'S WILL BE ENDORSED ON THE TICKET NAMED BY NOT-LEY'S PARTY.

The Home Rulers, who seem to have been asleep on the track, are just now awakening to their opportunities. The split which is apparent in the Republican party, though slight, and the want of enthusiasm shown by some cranks in the present campaign, is causing them to wake up and do things. Monday next will witness their delegates to the County and District convention assembling to name their candidates at Kahiliulani Hall on Kukui street. At the same time the Democratic delegates will convene at Waverley block. A friendly feeling between the Democrats and the Home Rulers is very evident. That a fusion between them will be the result next Monday seems to be more than a mere speculation. The Home Rulers will name some Democrats on their ticket, such as Frank Harvey for Supervisor-at-Large and Abraham Fernandez for the Senate. There does not seem to be any opposition to these two names in the Home Rule camp. As a return, it is very likely that the Democrats will leave some blank spaces on their ticket for some Home Rule candidates that would be agreeable to them. The Republican labor party is also receiving some recognition from the Home Rulers. Joseph Fern will be placed on the Home Rule ticket as Supervisor for the District of Honolulu, Representative Charles Broad for the Senate, and J. K. Kalakela for Deputy Sheriff. With the Democratic, Home Rule and Republican labor party working in co-operation, the Republican party will have to put up a strenuous campaign.

The Home Rule ticket as will be presented is as follows:

For the Senate: David Kalanika-lani, Representative Chas. Broad and Abraham Fernandez.

For the House: E. L. Kaula, W. K. Kalehula and D. Damien. There are many aspirants for a seat in the House, but all the names have not been considered yet.

For Supervisor-at-Large: Frank Harvey.

KINNEY REVIVES AFTER HIS DEFEAT

Beaten For Delegate But Election D Voids

KIDD IS ACCUSED OF MACHIAVELLIAN PLAN

BITTER BATTLE IN SECOND PRECINCT OF THE FOURTH ENDS IN VICTORY OF THE LEADERS.

A warm and bitter fight, which to the outsider has a very amusing aspect, is at present being fought by the Democrats in the Second Precinct of the Fourth District. The "reputable" Democrats of the precinct were originally badly done up by Stephen Umauma, the well known one-armed politician of Molokai. The defeat stung, and as a result accusations of various kinds were made against those not in the "reputable" fold.

It appears that in the precinct election a few days ago W. A. Kinney, John Effinger and Harry Juen, running for delegates to the convention, were hopelessly beaten by Stephen Umauma and his forces. As a consequence there was a large howl. The "reputables" alleged that Umauma had done the trick by annexing the precinct roll and enrolling on it Republicans and everybody else he could find to serve his needs.

Now, W. A. Kinney is the chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, and for the head of the party to fail to get elected as an ordinary delegate to the convention was particularly atrocious.

The defeated men threw the blame on R. Beverley Kidd.

It appears that whenever anything calamitous happens in the ranks of the Democratic party Kidd is the lamb who is offered in sacrifice. This was done on this occasion. It was decided that Kidd, in order to favor some deep-laid scheme for the benefit of his friend A. M. Brown, had generated the attack. It was recognized that only a master hand could have inflicted such a defeat and Kidd was recognized as the power behind Umauma.

While these suspicions were of course denied, the defeated ones lost no time to rectify the trouble, and appealed to the Central Committee. They showed that the election had been held outside of the precinct boundaries, and that Umauma should not have been an election judge, as he lives in the First Precinct. The Central Committee declared the election void, and another meeting of the precinct was held last night, of which (Continued on Page 2)

SCHOOLS CROWDED TO OVERFLOWING

Public Instruction Board Holds a Special Meeting

EIGHTY CHILDREN APPLY FOR ONE PRIMARY GRADE

MAKE-SHIFT SOLUTION BUT THE BEST POSSIBLE UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES — ALL SCHOOLS CROWDED.

A special meeting of the Commissioners of Public Instruction was called this morning by Superintendent Habbitt to deal with the situation that presents itself in the receiving room of the Central Grammar School. Commissioners Al, Farrington and Mrs. Dowsett were present.

The problem of where to put all the scholars applying at the public school this year is a big one. There is practically a blockade at the High School. One lot of pupils has been accommodated by placing the desks on the verandah. A dressing room has also been fitted up in order that others of the city's children may have a place to put themselves.

Superintendent Habbitt was at the school all day yesterday, and with the assistance of Principal Scott of the High School and Miss Needham, principal of the Central Grammar, shuffled the children about so that they were given a place to stay though it was ever so inconvenient.

The receiving room of the Grammar was a different problem. With every grade made up of fifty or more children—quite enough for one teacher—the receiving room had eighty children to care for.

It was impossible to send these children to other schools because all schools are filled to overflowing.

Four propositions were presented. One was to fit up the janitor's cottage for a school room. This would require money and exactly $20 is available for this work and it must last until the end of the year.

Another plan was to fit up a room in the house used as a teacher's cottage. Aside from the shortage of funds the danger is that once repair work is started on the cottage there is no telling where it will end.

Next came the plan to have two sessions a day; the older children to attend from 8:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and the younger ones from 1 o'clock to 3 p. m.

There was also the alternative of turning away thirty children because there is no proper accommodation. This would result in the innocent children suffering from the shortcoming of the Legislature.

It was finally decided to adopt the third scheme mentioned, hold two sessions and possibly employ an additional teacher.

EDITORS TAKE CHARGE OF THURSDAY'S PAPER

It will be a hummer!
That is what Secretary Johnson said it would be if the Southern California editors took hold of a special edition of the Bulletin.
They will make good in large type.
The Californians will be responsible for the issue of tomorrow's Bulletin. Johnson, Holt, Horton and Penny have had their coats off all day and there will be more in the game tomorrow when they go down the line and get the news. Strict orders have been issued against the cocktail route.
The Bulletin issued under the direction of the Californians will be a twenty-four-page paper as full of news and ads and good things as a nut is full of meat. It will be out on time. It will be a real newspaper as the Bulletin always is, and just a shade better than that.

DANCE AT SEASIDE

A dance will be given at the Seaside Hotel on Thursday evening in honor of the California Editors as well as the officers and ladies of the transport Sherman and Sheridan. The public will be more than welcome.

Dickey Predicts End Of Pugilism

Lyle Dickey feels confident that prize-fighting in Honolulu is a thing of the past.

"United States District Attorney Breckons wrote to me on the subject that, while it was not up to me to remind him of his duty, and while the Federal law forbidding prize-fighting in the Territory had been passed to stop one certain fight, he would see to it that the law was enforced, if the Ministerial Union should ask him to do so."

"The Ministerial Union will meet tomorrow. I am not a member of that body, not being a minister, but I feel that the ministers, when they know that all they have to do to stop prize-fighting is to say the word, will not hesitate to say the word."

The Company's San Francisco Home Office Building, destroyed by fire, was fully covered by insurance in standard companies.
